

Double Murder Battles Officials

DENVER, COLO., Aug. 28.—Police combed the Italian section of Denver today in search of a man named "Joe" in the belief that he could throw light on the slaying of Mrs. Roy McGlone, 28, wife of a Denver athletic instructor, and Miss Emma Vasovic, 19, a hotel employee, who were found shot to death—each with a bullet in her right temple—last night in the bedroom of Mrs. McGlone's apartment.

Efforts to find a motive for the double slaying were fruitless. In the meantime Mrs. McGlone's husband was speeding toward Denver from a camp near Bailey, Colo.

The two bodies were found in a pool of blood on the floor. A .32-caliber automatic pistol lay between them with two empty cartridges nearby.

A blood-stained note, scrawled in an untidy, masculine hand and found on a dressing table caused police to discount the first theory of murder and suicide.

"I kill him because I thought too much of him. I want him to go where I go. Goodbye I happy now. She not to."

On another dressing table was found a glass half full with a brown liquid. An analysis of the fluid is being made. Neighbors told police they heard three shots yesterday evening. Police found no signs of a struggle.

I. C. Rosser, a neighbor told police he recently heard Mrs. McGlone say she feared her husband was jealous of "Joe." Rosser said he did not know who "Joe" was.

Belgium Demands More Than Promises

PARIS, Aug. 28.—(By The Associated Press)—The Belgian government in its reply to the last British reparations note, stands with France on the principal points of contention, maintaining that the legality of the Ruhr occupation has been established by the previous action of the allies against Germany, and that execution of the Ruhr on simple promises from Germany, is impossible.

The reply, given out at the Belgian embassy here this morning, dwells particularly upon the justice of Belgium's claim to priority in reparations payments. It points out that thus far Belgium has received only two million gold marks more than Great Britain.

Foreign Minister Jaspar asserts that the whole problem of reparations and the question of interallied debts are definitely bound together, and he proposes a new method of procedure in the negotiations, suggesting conversations among the allies, "without reverting to the old system of conferences."

Mr. Jaspar remarks that if a reduction in Germany's debt is necessary, the balance she is obliged to pay ought to apply to material damages only. This might be understood as meaning the elimination of pensions from the allied claims on Germany, thus reducing the British share.

Pass 24 Hour Mark In Air Marathon

SAN DIEGO, CAL., Aug. 28.—(By The Associated Press)—In a plane that takes on food and fuel in mid air with the same ease that an express train's locomotive scoops up water enroute, Captain Lowell H. Smith and Lieut. John P. Richter, on a course above San Diego, passed this morning the 24-hour mark in their air marathon.

They hopped off from Rockwell Field at 5:04:17 a. m. yesterday. During the 24 hours they refueled and repositioned several times receiving supplies from another plane. Early today they had broken two speed records, those for 2,500 and 3,000 kilometers.

They flew 2,500 kilometers in 17 hours, 32 minutes, 44.5 seconds. They made the previous record last June 28, 18 hours, 15 minutes, 5.5 seconds.

The 3,000 kilometers they made in 24 hours and 11 minutes. The previous record—26 hours, one minute, 32 seconds—was made by Lieutenants Oakley Kelly and John A. Macready of transcontinental non-stop fame.

Captain Smith and Lieutenant Richter were making an average speed of 91.12 miles an hour. They hope to remain aloft at least 45 hours thus breaking all endurance records and various speed and distance records.

At 2:15 a. m. today they completed the sixtieth lap of their course over the city.

Blackberry Pies Nearly Guss

SAN DIEGO, CAL., August 28.—Two blackberry pies in a metal lined bucket to which was attached 50 pounds of lead nearly wrecked the hopes of Captain Lowell H. Smith and Lieutenant John Richter, who are trying for world air record laurels here today. The incident occurred at an average speed of 92.44 miles an hour.

Another plane went aloft and made contact with Smith and Richter's craft, lowering the pies and some sandwiches. Richter was standing in the cockpit, and had grasped the bucket containing the pies when a sudden gust of wind caused the upper plane to nose up. For a few seconds Richter, clinging to the bucket, was literally suspended in midair. Captain Robert G. Cravin, pilot of the contact plane, quickly whipped the nose of his plane downward and Richter settled back in his seat with the blackberry pies and sandwiches in his hands. The aviators set a whirlwind pace over the 20 kilometer course, speeding at 92 miles per hour all day in their effort to break the world's endurance distance and speed records for 2,500 kilometers and over.

Takes Fuel in Midair

Fuel, lubricating oil and food were taken aboard in midair with consummate skill and almost incredible rapidity.

The first contact was made at 10 a. m. Lieutenants Virgil Hines handled the refueling plane. Within three minutes ninety gallons of gasoline had been transferred to Smith and Richter's plane.

Additional contacts were made at

Says Reese Made Effort To Enforce The Laws

COLUMBUS, O., August 28.—(By The A. P.)—Governor Donahey today signed orders reinstating William G. Reese as mayor of Youngstown and removing Police Chief James Watkins from that city, following their hearing last week and yesterday on charges of failure to enforce certain laws.

Mayor Reese had been under suspension since July 26. Chief Watkins had not been suspended, though charges were filed against him at the same time.

The order reinstating Mayor Reese said that the evidence submitted by both sides showed that the mayor "made an honest effort to enforce the laws so far as he was able to do so through the chief of police, an official who had been appointed under a preceding administration."

In the order removing Police Chief Watkins, the governor said that in his opinion the "charges have been proven beyond a reasonable doubt by the evidence submitted."

Governor Donahey in the order reinstating Mayor Reese calls attention to the fact that he has removed Police Chief Watkins, thereby giving the Mayor opportunity to name a new police chief.

"This gives him power to enforce properly the laws and make him directly responsible," the order declares.

The order removing Chief Watkins is effective at once as is the order reinstating Mayor Reese.

"The citizens of Youngstown," said the reinstatement order, "are entitled to have a whole new place to live in and are convinced they stand ready to assist the mayor in all efforts to

Hail Of Bullets Fired At Foster

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Three men who attempted to shoot William Z. Foster, radical labor leader, as he started to address a meeting of 3,000 men and women garment workers last night, failed to hit him with a dozen shots, and fled down the fire escape from which they had directed the attack.

Foster quickly calmed his audience and continued his speech. He said that the Chicago Police Department was firing at him from the top of the steel strike, had just advanced to the front of the platform when three unidentified men opened the fire escape door thirty feet away and opened fire.

Some present said a score of shots were fired, others said a dozen. The three men ran down the fire escape and vanished.

Prompt action by Foster averted a panic, as many of the fear-stricken women had started a rush for the two narrow stairways that lead to the street, two floors below.

Efforts Made To Change Ship Policy

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright, 1923)
WASHINGTON, August 28.—Efforts to change President Harding's shipping policy have not abated. The American Steamship Owners' Association and the U. S. Ship Operators Association tomorrow will appeal to the Shipping Board for a continuation with some modification of the present method of operating government ships through managing agents.

The new suggestions involve a more efficient system of operating ships through agents but does not guarantee the Government against losses while insuring more or less profits to the operators. There is little likelihood of the acceptance of the plan as the shipping board unanimously decided in the presence of Mr. Harding last June to do away with the managing agent method and substitute a system of subsidiary companies. The latter scheme is being held in abeyance out of courtesy to President Coolidge who has expressed a desire to reform himself about it.

SIX BURIED BY CAVE-IN

BALTIMORE, Aug. 28.—Five negro laborers, are in a serious condition in hospitals and six missing men, white and colored, are believed to be buried under tons of earth following the cave-in of an embankment during excavation work for the colored high school about noon today.

Firemen and police worked with picks and shovels in an attempt to rescue the men they believed buried.

M. G. Young, timekeeper, is one of those missing, making an accurate check of the casualties impossible.

Unless the missing buried men are rescued shortly, there is little hope of saving their lives.

Collapse of weak beams, placed from one side of the hole to the other, to prevent just such an accident as today's is believed to have caused the cave-in.

Pinchot Hears Both Sides In Coal Row

HARRISBURG, PA., Aug. 28.—(By The Associated Press)—Governor Pinchot today heard both sides in the anthracite coal strike today brought him into executive session with the spokesmen for the employers in the industry which is threatened with a shut down September 1.

Miners' union officials who have issued notices for the 155,000 miners to cease work at midnight, August 31, explained yesterday the reasons which have actuated them in refusing to proceed with wage contract negotiations and today he was to hear the employers' side of the question.

Other than to serve notice upon both sides that the public interest required and would obtain a settlement of the issues without a stoppage of the coal supply, Governor Pinchot has held his peace. His attitude, he said, so far, is that of an official who first is hearing representations from both sides.

At viewpoints in miners and operators brought to Governor Pinchot's attention today, the miners' mediation effort were unchanged. The employers have offered arbitration; the union demanding an increase of 20 per cent for piece work and 10 per cent for day workers, and seeking the establishment of a system for collecting union dues, has only one tentative compromise offer standing.

"That calls for the granting of the 'check-off' demand by the operators, their acceptance of the principle that wage increases are necessary for their abolition of all but eight hour day employment. With these concessions, it was said, the unions would allow the mines to work while negotiations were resumed."

Night Life Chapter In Murder Mystery

NEW YORK, August 28.—Another chapter in Broadway's night life is being revealed to police in the search for the murderer of John H. Sulphren, a private secretary who was found dead, a warm pipe in his mouth, day before yesterday.

Two freshly dressed women, the presence of cyanide in Sulphren's stomach; a third woman known as "Mrs. Sulphren" who lived in his apartment, and a real Mrs. Sulphren in New Jersey, were the tangle of facts police had to work on. It also was learned that Sulphren, although working at a comparatively small salary, had been paying high rent for more than a year for a Central Park West apartment which he occupied.

"The two women were first seen in Sulphren's apartment by a medical examiner who went to the spot when the secretary's body first was discovered by a friend who said he had taken Sulphren home in an intoxicated condition the night before.

One of the mysteries confronting the police is how the poison was administered. In "some places" traces of cyanide had been found in the apartment. There was a suggestion that the death potion had been placed in the stem of Sulphren's pipe.

No definite motive could be found for the crime.

Hughes, secretary of state was being mentioned in some circles today as a possible candidate for the presidency of the American Bar Association, whose annual convention opens here tomorrow. A resolution asking removal of the United States Supreme Court from Washington, to "some place away from the influence of Congress" will be presented by J. Hamilton Lewis, former U. S. Senator from Illinois, he announced today.

Mr. Lewis said he opposed any move to prevent the court from declaring itself invalid when opposed to the constitution.

His statement said: "The evil that afflicts the court is the unconscious influence of politics springing from the fever of debate on each party measure in the Congress."

"The first impulse of such members of the court as owe their appointment to the administration in power, is to have a natural tendency to favor that side."

A uniform marriage and divorce law will be urged at a mass meeting tonight.

Umpire For Kiwanian-Exchange Club Game

Getting Scared; Wants Decision On Eggs

When is an egg rotten? And when is the decision to be made? These two important questions were propounded to-day by the man who has been selected to umpire the ball game between the Kiwanian and Exchange Club teams at Millbrook park Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The reason the umpire is so nervous is that upon a ruling concerning the above questions it has been decided that rotten eggs may not be hurled at the umpire, but there has so far been no decision against strictly fresh eggs. The umpire wants to know whether the decision is to be made before or after the eggs are thrown. In event the former course is followed he threatens to refuse to officiate.

Exchange Club members yesterday evening entered a formal protest against having the grounds polluted by the Kiwanian team's offensive, and are insisting that Sheriff Dunham likewise have a force of deputies on hand to see that order is preserved and everybody have a fair chance. It is likely such an arrangement will be made.

All of which shows that the rivalry between the two teams is fast reaching the popping-off point, and no one knows just what will happen when they clash Thursday afternoon. "We're going to win by a top-sided score," says Captain Baughman of the Exchange Club. "The Kiwanians have a look-in." The entire exchange club team is equally confident.

Captain Ricker, of the Kiwanian team, is a little more modest. "The Exchange Club won't even know it had a team when we get through with them," was his boast this morning. Following the conflict on the diamond the members of both clubs, including the survivors of the ball teams, will enjoy a dinner served by the Mary Louise force.

THE GUMPS—THE HAIRBRUSH KING

WELL, MR GUMP, I WANT TO SAY TO YOU THAT IN MY TIME I'VE DONE BUSINESS WITH MOST OF THE BIG MEN OF AMERICA - BUT COMPARING YOU WITH THE BEST OF THEM WOULD BE LIKE COMPARING GENERAL DELIVERY WITH NAPoleon.

WAIT TILL YOU SEE THE SNAPPY SLOGANS THAT I HAVE FOR OUR ADS - THE HEALTHY HAIR-BRUSH FOR HAPPY HAIR - ISN'T THAT A KNOCKOUT - AND LISTEN TO THIS ONE - YOU FURNISH THE HEAD - WE FURNISH THE BRUSH -

AS USUAL YOU ARE RIGHT - I CAN SEE YOU HAVE THE CAPACITY FOR TAKING INFINITE PAINS THAT MAKES A MAN OF GENIUS - OUR OWN FACTORY WILL LEND A PRESTIGE TO OUR ENTERPRISE THAT A RENTED FACTORY WOULD LACK.

I'VE ALWAYS DONE THINGS IN A BIG WAY - I'LL SPARE NO EFFORT TO MAKE THE BEST HAIR BRUSH IN THE WORLD - BEFORE I FINISH THE NAME "GUMP" ON A HAIR BRUSH WILL BE SYNONYMOUS WITH "STERLING" ON SILVER.

I APPROVE OF YOUR SUGGESTION IN REGARD TO RENTING OFFICES BUT WE CAN SAVE TIME AND MONEY BY BUILDING AN UP-TO-DATE SANITARY FACTORY OF OUR OWN.

NOW, MR GUMP, WE'LL HAVE TO START MANUFACTURING THE COMBINATION HAIR BRUSH AND MIRROR AT ONCE - WE'LL HAVE TO RENT OFFICES AND A LARGE FACTORY IMMEDIATELY.

HAY FEVER

PROMPTLY RELIEVED BY NEW DISCOVERY

Eyes Quit Itching, Nose Stops Running and Burning, Makes Life Worth Living. Money Refunded if It Fails.

At last! Real relief for hay fever. The long search for scientific relief for some of the most annoying and distressing ailments has resulted in a new discovery. It is now possible to get through the hay fever season and hardly know that you ever had this terrible affliction.

"Dip-pollin" is the name of this new compound. It is absolutely harmless, contains no injurious or habit-forming drugs. Simply apply it in the nostrils, and almost instantly you realize that hay fever has met its master. The nose clears up and stops running. The feverishness and itching of the eyes ease and soon cease almost entirely. A few applications a day enable you to work in comfort and sleep in peace. Hay fever is caused by pollen from weeds, ragweed, etc., which irritates the mucous lining of the nose. Dip-pollin keeps this pollen infection under such control that it doesn't make your life miserable. It is easy to use and acts like magic.

"Cave-Wonderful Relief!" "I started using Dip-pollin for hay fever last July, and obtained most wonderful relief. For the first time in many years, I slept soundly during the hay fever season."

son, and was able to work with very little of the usual nose and eye troubles. I recommended Dip-pollin to several others, and all of them received the same benefit. It is the first real relief I ever found and has had no bad effects."—Wm. Walker, 125 Edgemont Ave., Indianapolis.

"I have found complete relief through Dip-pollin all through the Rose and Hay Fever season. My suffering used to be very severe. Dip-pollin cleared my head, stopped the running of the nose, made my breathing easy and in fact made it possible for me to work and get a good night's sleep. It is the first real relief I ever found and has had no bad effects."—Wm. Walker, 125 Edgemont Ave., Indianapolis.

COSTS NOTHING TO TRY

You can try Dip-pollin without risking a penny. If it fails to please you, your money will be promptly returned. No tape about it—try Dip-pollin at our risk. At your druggist, or send $2 for package by mail prepaid, with our money-back guarantee, endorsed by a leading Indianapolis bank. Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to "Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio."

Dear Dolly—Don't you think that Rudyard Kipling had a far-reaching vision, or a pretty good knowledge of mankind when he penned those true to life words, in that famous poem "The Vampire," Dolly, do you suppose he was speaking from experience or did he just draw on his imagination? If men who have been hypnotized by what Kipling says "in a rag and a bone and a hank of hair," would read that poem I think they would soon see the moral in it.

ONE WHO CAN'T BE VAMPIRED. Be careful now, and watch your step or some pretty happen will come along and vamp you. If she does, the chances are you will fall for her charms. Just like the rest of 'em. Very few men are vamp-proof.

Dear Dolly—To settle an argument will you please print in the paper the exact date that the old opera house that stood on the corner of Fourth and Chillicothe street, burned down.

FORGOTTEN READER. The Grand Opera House burned on the night of September third, 1914.

Dear Dolly—Will you please print a recipe for canning pimientos.

MRS. G. To can pimientos: To peel, put the pimientos in a pan in a hot oven for six to eight minutes, watching to see that they do not get too brown. Turn out, then slip off the skins, cut out the stems, remove seeds and pack in the cans, pressing them down flat as you pack. Don't put any water or seasoning in. For the canning, which will be sufficient, use salt and seasonings. Put on the rubber rings and screw the covers on loosely, set the cans on a rack in a water bath in a boiler or a pan that has a tight cover, and cook 25 minutes; after the water about the cans begins to boil. Lift out immediately, and at once tighten the covers.

Dear Dolly—Please tell me if the new age law of last July had any effect on girls who became eighteen before that time.

IGNORANCE. Under the new law girls must be twenty-one when they get a license to marry, regardless of how old they were when the law went into effect.

Dear Dolly—We are two girls of 14. We go with a crowd of girls about the same age and we are what you would call nice looking girls, but when the boys come around we are left out. We expect to be boys and treat them right but because we are not smart and flip like the rest of the girls they don't seem to care for us. Should we act like the rest or not, or go by ourselves?

BROWN EYES. If acting "like the rest" means that you will lose your self-respect, or cause you to do things that you will be ashamed of, I would advise you to go by yourselves. However, I don't think it necessary for any girl to "act smart or flip" as you call it, in order to be popular. If that is the case in your set you have gotten into the wrong crowd, and the sooner you get out of it the better.

BIAS BANDS of pile fabrics applied with the nap running in the opposite direction to the rest of the coat are a trimming much employed on good-looking wraps of the more conservative type. This device achieves a very attractive effect of alternating shadow and gloss.

KIT FOX a very soft brownish fur with a greyish cast, and resembling squirrel to the feel, is perhaps the one outstanding fur success of the season. It figures not only as barding on many of the more dressy wraps, but collars not a few of the many top-coats that are promised such a vogue.

APRON EFFECTS extending just across the front of frock skirts, and composed either of a series of tiers or circular ruffles are one expression of the Fall custom of massing all ornament at the front. A virtue of the plain back, of course is that it minimizes wrinkling.

YOKES that impart a square quaintness to many afternoon frocks are a fascinating detail, and frequently seen in the neckline for the square neckline shares honors about equally with the round. Speaking of neck-lines the glorified bustle—brown known as The Van Dyke collar is typical of the more extreme models.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Barton

THE TWO PONIES

Tied to some of the trees were two ponies

THE Twins put on their magic shoes and made a wish, and instantly they were whisked away through space and landed lightly as a feather in a place taken up days and nights on a train to get to. But Nancy and Nick were as quick as you could jump over a gutter of rainwater. They looked around so curiously at the miles and miles of flat country that they didn't see the surprise waiting for them. A clear stream was flowing by, with cottonwood trees growing on each bank, and all sorts of green things like a garden. And tied to some of the trees were two ponies—one white and one black, with saddles and bridles, all ready to go. "Jump on," said the white pony. "I'm yours, Nancy, my brother, Nick, you're to ride Blackie, my brother. My name's Snow. We're going to take you to the Red Rock Cave in the mountains where Mister Gallop lives. He's waiting."

Nancy and Nick, at the word "mountains," forgot to thank the pony. Everything had happened so quickly they had scarcely had time to get their breaths, so if they forgot their manners for a minute it wasn't to be wondered at. Beyond the place where the ponies were tied the mountains rose so high in the air the Twins had to tilt their heads back to see to the top. And on the lippest top of the highest point there was snow, like whipped cream on top of chocolate cake.

Then Nick remembered his manners. "This is a fine place and we're going to like it. We'll all be friends and help Mister Gallop all we can. What does he do?"

"He's sort of an overseer," said Blackie. "Someone has to run things out here and see fair play. He's a fairy, but he dresses like a cowboy and wears boots and spurs and chaps and a big hat and a handkerchief round his neck and carries a lasso. He rides a horse called Echo. If you listen you can hear him most any time. Jump on."

Nick jumped on Blackie, Nancy climbed up on Snow, and away they went.

MRS. BUTLER'S TERRIBLE PAINS

Vanished After Using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

W. Philadelphia, Pa.—"When I cleaned house last April I must have overlooked, for after that time I had pains and aches all the time and was so discouraged I could hardly do my own housework, and I could not carry a basket of groceries from the store nor walk even four or five squares without getting terrible pains in my back and abdomen and lower chest. I went to visit a friend in Mr. Holly, N. J., and she said, 'Mrs. Butler, why don't you take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' My husband said that if it did her so much good for the same trouble, I should try it. So I have taken it and it is doing me good. Whenever I feel heavy or bad, it puts me right on my feet again. I am able to do my work with pleasure and am getting strong and stout."—MRS. CHARLES BUTLER, 1233 S. Hanson St., W. Philadelphia, Pa.

A group of friends assembled Saturday night at the home of Ted Gordley, on McCConnell avenue, giving him a surprise in honor of his birthday anniversary. JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES—THE PIRATE SHIP

So Jack and Kettles and Pip were soon on dry land again. "What place is this?" asked Jack. "I don't know," replied Kettles, "but as soon as we land our anchor and ashore, we will go over the hill and see what a great mound where they could see far out to sea on all sides of them."

Then, with Pip barking loudly and leading the way, Jack and the old Pirate cook started to explore the island. Finally they reached the top of the mound, about ready to return to the bank again when he suddenly saw a light.

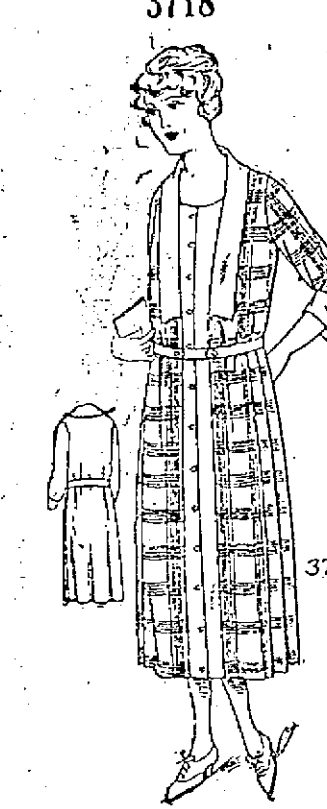

At first there was nothing to be seen except the great green waves of the water. Even the old Pirate Ship had disappeared from sight. Jack was about ready to return to the bank again when he suddenly saw a light.

In Midst of Crisis in Oil Business
TITUSVILLE, Pa., August 23.—(By Associated Press.)—The present crisis in the petroleum industry presents an economic problem which as vitally affects the gasoline consumer of today, as it did the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey which has anything in common either in connection or execution with the policies of any other unit of the petroleum industry, irrespective of similarity of name or classification.
"I would like to say here," he said, "that there is no business policy of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey declared today in an address at services to celebrate the memory of Edward Laurence Drake, 'The founder of the petroleum industry.'"
"Whatever the outcome," he said, "it cannot be more than a temporary postponement of the extent of the problem of enormous storage for either crude or gasoline must rest upon the results of such expenditures as already resorted to, such as the reduction in the price of certain grades of crude, the profligate of runs and other steps designed to curtail production, and the task of financing and carrying over a huge surplus of either crude or gasoline is forced on the industry. It will undertake and accomplish this as it has before undertaken and accomplished tasks beyond its apparent capacity."
"In a highly competitive business such as the oil industry, ultimate solution of the problem will rest with the law of supply and demand."
"We are now in the midst of a crisis in the industry and I have no desire to minimize the extremely serious aspects of the situation, but I must confess that if the petroleum industry ever ceased to be abnormal, I think I should find it very dull indeed." Mr. Bedford said that his company.

Gold Found May Be Bergdoll Treasure
WASHINGTON, August 23.—(By Associated Press.)—Department of Justice Agents will endeavor to determine whether gold coins reported to have been dug up recently near Hagerstown Md., by a road worker is the property of Grever Cleveland Bergdoll, Philadelphia draft evader, now in Germany. Announcing today that arrangements had been made with Wm. J. Burns, chief of the department's bureau of investigation, for agents "well vested and experienced in the Bergdoll case to investigate the whole occurrence in the vicinity of Hagerstown," Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian, declared the "United States Government through this office, will be interested" if the money proves to be Bergdoll's.
Mr. Miller said that until the agents make their report, his office could formulate no policy nor could a prediction be made as to what future action might be taken. The demand made by the Government for Bergdoll's property, he declared "would cover the so-called sum of money which Bergdoll was reported to have hidden in the vicinity of Hagerstown."

PESKY BED BUGS

Bedbugs lay an average of seven eggs per day. Under favorable conditions they hatch in five days of which two-thirds are females. They mature to adult size and are capable of laying in four weeks. How many bedbugs would you have in a year if you left one female or egg unremoved for one year?

To rid the pesky bedbugs, you really see how necessary it is to use a preparation that will kill the eggs as well as the live ones.

P. D. Q. has been demonstrated by the lead. The Hospitals, Hotels and Railroad Companies that the safest and most economical way to stop future generations of bedbugs, roaches, fleas and ants is to use the new discovery Pesky Bedbugs "P. D. Q."

A 5c package of P. D. Q. makes a quart, enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas and cotes and at the same time destroy their eggs.

Impossible for them to exist when P. D. Q. is properly used. First a patent spent in every package to get the pesky bedbugs in the hard-to-get-at places and save the juice.

P. D. Q. is not an insect powder, no motor dust to injure the bedding.

P. D. Q. for family use. Hospital plus $2.50 makes five gallons. P. D. Q. can also be purchased in sealed bottles, double strength liquid form.

Genuine P. D. Q. is never peddled.

River Traffic Heavy, Report Shows

A commercial statistical report, showing the amount of traffic on the Ohio River for the year, 1922, was made public Monday by Major A. K. Lyman, of the United States Engineers' Corps in Cincinnati.

According to the report, 6,201,820 tons of various commodities were hauled on the river during the year. The number of passengers hauled totaled 378,517; the average travel of the passengers being 44 miles. Passengers on the different river ferries totaled 3,743,575.

An itemized report of the commodities shows that the following amounts were hauled by boat: Coal, 4,155,103; sand and gravel, $25,900; logs, 122,010 tons; railroad ties, 142,976 tons; iron and steel, 310,239 tons; dry goods, 21,440 tons; furniture, 34,421 tons; iron-ore, 21,118 tons; live stock, 15,000 tons; oil, 30,029 tons, and miscellaneous in the report because of the plans for a river-rail terminal in Cincinnati.

Much interest is being manifested in the report because of the plans for a river-rail terminal in Cincinnati.

Apply only to material damage done by her during the war, that is, the destruction of property in Belgium and France, shipping losses at sea and damages from air raids in England.

The remarks that although the material damage is perhaps less than the 132,000,000,000 gold marks now considered as due from Germany, it is considerably more than the allies mentioned by certain of the allies as the total Germany war pay.

The allies agree that the negotiators thus show that Germany's debt can be considerably reduced. The question, he asserts, is how it can best be done with justice to all the allies.

TAX APPORTIONMENTS MADE

The total sum derived from the June tax collection and from other sources for distribution in the August 1st apportionment amounted to $2,314,440.00 including street assessments, less an advance draw of $50,000 secured recently to pay operating expenses of the city government pending receipt of the tax money. Portsmouth and New Boston together received a total of $71,912.73 from special street assessments.

The schools of the city and county received $382,031.31; townships, $34,285.50 and corporations and villages outside of Portsmouth $21,268.00. Here is how the remainder was distributed: State $85,090.65; County General fund $40,105.99; County Home $226.74; Children's Home $206.74; Bridges $20,650.14; Sinking $85,098.28; Election $7,102.31; County Road $32,100.29; Turnpike $82,007.43; Bond $107,113; Judicial $292,448; Mother's Pension $12,375.35.

Less than half or only $109,007.78 of the total received by the city of Portsmouth is for current or operating expenses, the balance of $124,610.04 going to the Sinking fund and pension funds, the Sinking fund receiving a credit of $122,046.41; Firemen's pension fund $231,321 and Policemen's pension fund $237.02.

The sum of $52,036.37 received by the city in payment of street assessments is included in the Sinking fund receipts.

Here's how the money was distributed to the various city funds: General $35,083.33; Service $47,360.61; Hospital $28,535.39; Library $285.39; Park $270.24.

There go two girls carrying canes. Yes, and there's a man with a monocle. I'd like to see him walk down street in Lucasville past a crowd of kids. Well, if there isn't a woman taxi driver! And a man on the sidewalk selling "Abe's Weekly" apparently a good sized magazine. What fools some mortals be! A funeral in New York, the first I've ever seen here. And wonders never cease. Here's a woman pushing a baby carriage with a baby in it, through the crowds on Broadway at Forty-second street.

The mourning over the death of President Harding seems to have been exceptionally sincere here in New York, for everywhere you notice flags being flown at half mast and the fronts of many churches, banks, business houses and clubs are heavily draped in black. On Friday, the day of his funeral, practically all business closed for the entire day.

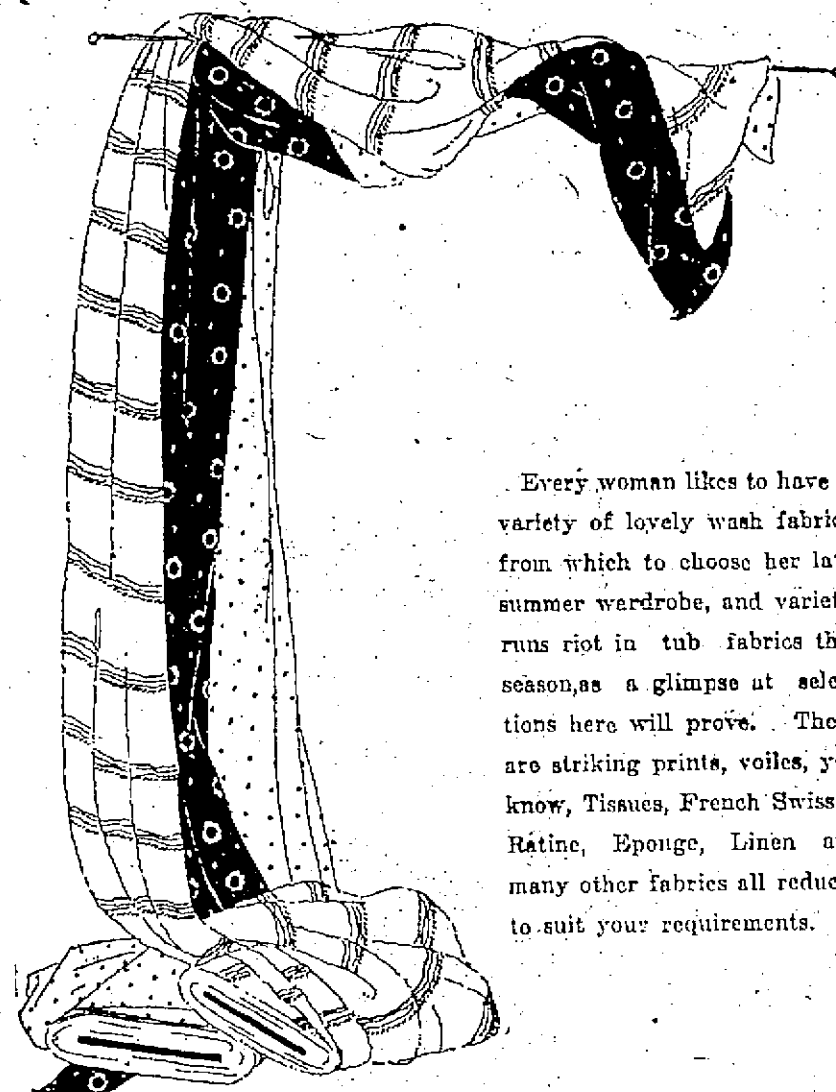

Stretched across the street on Fifth avenue near Forty-second is a large sign which reads as follows: "Notice! This street is to be overhauled and a new pavement laid. Examine and repair all pipes, electric wires, etc., and make such installations as are necessary, now. You will not be permitted to make opening for any purpose for at least a year after completion." They're awfully particular over here about their old streets. What good is a perfectly smooth street if you can't dig it up every whip-stitch and leave it with a nice chuck hole.

Large signs on the Elevated Railroad Stations say: "Ride on the open air elevated." That sounds very well and good now in the summer months, but how about that "open air" stuff along in January of February, when the salt breezes off the ocean nearly shave you. New York's cold is piercing and chills you to the bone. Suggestion of "open air" at that time seems like poor salesmanship.

There are always some folks who want to know what shows I saw in New York. So far I have seen "Adeline," a clever musical and girl show and rated very high. "The Winter Garden," as usual very good. "The Fool," an excellent play, and the one in which our own Portsmouth boy, Roy Gordon, has been playing a prominent part. Contrary to "Rain," another very popular show here, "The Fool" leaves a good taste in your mouth. But for shows to talk about, the one just opened last Monday night and which we saw on Tuesday night, called "Artist and Models," has set Broadway gasping with its Parisian daring. The newspapers say it is the most "daring" affair that has as yet been introduced in Broadway. I would not attempt to describe this popular production in this very respected family journal, but interested friends may see me in private when I return.

Honest to goodness, there comes the fire engines again. If I lived here very long I'd either run myself to death or get so I could sit still when the fire departments rush past.

New York By Day And Night

BY JACK HOOD

New York's tribute to the Christmas Sabbath has always impressed me. It is now Sunday noon and I have spent an hour in strolling along Broadway, Fifth Avenue and a few connecting streets in the forties. Were it not for the visitors to the city, like myself, I am sure I would not have seen, on an average, more than one person to a square, and on streets that are crowded and jammed with people, night and day, the balance of the week.

There's another new kind of a street car. It's called the Thermatic car and a large sign says, "Day when you leave." It seems one would be more sure of his ride than the company its money.

Death Calls Mayor Roebuck Of West Union

Special To Times.—August 28.—WEST UNION, Aug. 28.—Mayor Samuel Peter Roebuck, who had been mayor of this village for over 10 years at various times and one of Adams county's most influential citizens, died very suddenly late Monday night.

His death was attributed to heart trouble. Mayor Roebuck had been at the office of his brother, Attorney C. E. Roebuck, at 9 p. m. and apparently was in his usual good health. He retired at his usual time last night and did not awaken until near midnight, when he complained of pains around his heart. He passed away before relatives could be summoned to the bedside.

Mayor Roebuck in addition to his wife, leaves two sons, Drs. Oral and Carey Roebuck, of Gomer, O. He also leaves two brothers, C. E. and Henry Roebuck, of this place. Mayor Roebuck was a lifelong Republican and was for years one of the best known school teachers in Adams county. He was also a member of the board of school examiners for many years.

Compulsory Loan, Forcing Surrender Of Gold Securities

BERLIN, August 28.—(By the A. P.) The Government's forced draft of foreign currencies, details of which were revealed today, virtually resolved itself into what is termed here a thinly disguised compulsory loan, with obligatory surrender of gold currencies.

These currencies may be exchanged for paper marks at current rates of exchange, for an equivalent participation in the new internal gold loan, or the amounts assessed may be designated as applying on future payments of taxes.

The Government is determined to make its internal gold loan a nationwide patriotic issue, in addition to its plan for accumulating a gigantic reserve of gold currencies which will be devoted to an effort to salvage the internal financial situation and also to provide a gold capital fund out of which to pay for emergency food purchases abroad.

Public companies must surrender the equivalent in foreign securities, of two gold marks, and other public bodies and private possessions the equivalent of one gold mark for each ten thousand marks for which they are assessed under the tax to provide foodstuffs. The measure does not apply to those possessing only gold marks or less. Foreign securities will stand on par with private German imperial gold currency, gold bars and silver ingots.

Failure to make statutory declarations of holdings of foreign currency entails a fine not to exceed the equivalent of two gold marks each ten thousand marks, and imprisonment not exceeding six months.

In grave cases penal punishments up to five years with an equivalent fine may be inflicted. Willful misstatement will be punishable by ten years servitude.

Embezzler Captured

SAN ANTONI, Tex., August 28.—(By Associated Press)—Joseph Blata, alias Joseph B. Marcino, wanted in Chicago and Warren, Mass., on charges of embezzling $213,000 from the First National Bank of Warren last February, was arrested in Laredo, Texas, today by Department of Justice Agents.

Blata disappeared about February 1, and Department of Justice Agents believe that he has been in Mexico since that time. He is charged with being the "arch conspirator" in the theft of nearly $225,000 in cash and bonds.

The prisoner was taken as he crossed the International Bridge. He was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner on charges of theft and his bond was fixed at $100,000.

He had grown a beard and had adopted other alleged measures of disguise, but he admitted his identity as Joseph Blata of Warren, and Joseph B. Marcino of Chicago, according to officers. He is being held in the Webb county jail pending removal orders. Officers from Chicago are expected to come for him.

Blata in Chicago Joseph B. Marcino, arrested today at Laredo, Tex., in connection with the disappearance of $213,000 worth of bonds from the First National Bank of Warren, Mass., had a meteoric rise here from barber to banker and financial heights.

Nine years ago he was a barber. Then he got a job with an insurance company, and a short time afterwards organized the Roma Investment Company and Commonwealth Insurance Company, then with other secured control of numerous small banks in Iowa and Illinois. He was indicted in connection with the failure of some of these institutions but jumped his bail.

He married a daughter of Abraham Goldman, wealthy Chicago man and then with the aid of capital said to have been furnished by his father-in-law, transferred his operations to the east where he secured an interest in the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Philadelphia which failed, and then in the Niagara Life Insurance Company of Buffalo which went into receivership.

Got Bank Control Going to Warren, Mass., he succeeded with Goldman's aid, in gaining control of the First National Bank of Warren, and Frank L. Taylor, a Chicago clerk and former railroad burglar, was installed as head of the institution. Marcino disappeared last February along with bonds held by the bank valued at $213,000. At about the same time Taylor vanished from Warren.

Taylor was arrested in Chicago, where he claimed he came to notify Goldman that his son-in-law had left with the bank's resources. Goldman and Taylor claimed they knew nothing of Marcino's flight with the bonds but Taylor is serving a year sentence for his part in the affair.

Walking Match Stirs England

LONDON, August 28.—More notice on the sport pages of the English newspapers was given today to the ancient and honorable exercise of walking than to golf, horseback riding, tennis and cricket put together.

Much of the ambulatory interest was focused on a couple of middle aged members of parliament who engaged in a challenge to walk from Banbury Cross, to Oxford, a distance of 23½ miles, each with a full military pack flung over his shoulders. The remaining columns printed about tramping concerned the veteran pedestrian, George Cummings, who strode off from London in an attempt to walk the 200 miles to York in faster time than that recently required by an Arabian horse named "The Shik." The horse negotiated the trip in 104 hours, of which 30 were actual riding time.

The parliamentary pedestrians were Frank Gray, aged 43, Liberal for Oxford City, and Captain Charles Ainsworth, aged 49, conservative for Bury. Captain Ainsworth lost the lead a few miles from the finish when he stopped to change his shoes and a short while later he abandoned his effort within a mile and a half of his goal because of a cramp in his leg.

Gray completed the course in six hours and one minute, falling to the ground in a dead faint after his wife had kissed him as he stepped over the finish line. Captain Ainsworth was taken to a hospital for medical attention.

Former Dry Agent Held In Auto Theft CINCINNATI, August 28.—When James Dale, alias Haas, 23, former prohibition agent was arraigned in police court today on the charge of stealing the automobile of George W. Lyons, 37, painter, he accused Lyons of having urged him to take the machine and wreck it. Dale said that he was given $50 by Lyons to confiscate the car so that the latter could collect the insurance. Lyons denied ever having seen Dale.

The machine was found wrecked against a tree in Indiana. Dale, with James McMurray, 27, was brought here from Columbus last week. McMurray testified that he saw Lyons give Dale $50. Dale's case was continued until August 30.

Chief to Abate False Alarm Nuisance

Relentless warfare is being waged by Fire Chief Robert Leodon against the "false alarm" nuisance that is so prevalent in the city he says. Most of the alarms, the chief thinks, are turned in by children who wish to create some excitement.

Persons do not realize that each run of the fire department costs the city money. Great loss of property and danger to life might result, if a fire broke out while the departments were out on a "false alarm" call. Last week two boys responsible for a run were taken into custody, given hearings by Chief Probate Judge N. B. Gilliland and made wards of the court.

Puzzling Play's

THE PLAY
There is a runner on first base. The batsman hits to the shortstop. The hit and run play is on. The shortstop fumbles the ball slightly, and realizing he has no chance to get the runner at second, cuts loose a hurried throw to first to get the batsman.

This throw is wild and gets away from the first baseman, and the base umpire believes that it has gone into the player's bench, which, according to the ground rule entitles the runners to advance two bases.

The runner from first slid hard into second and slightly injured his ankle. He made no attempt to go to third on getting to his feet. The base umpire waved him over to third and he started to jog to that base.

The catcher of the team in the field recovered the ball and threw the ball to the third baseman, who from five dollars to two dollars, and a fan says he would like to wager Duke a couple of golf balls that there will be more gloves flying in one round of the Blair-Dando bout than the whole Martin-Clemons scrap.

And, the prices here are two dollars for the first round, better come to down to one dollar, better come to Portsmouth and see a real bout, Duke.

Features of Yesterday's Games
NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The New York home team lead of the York league leaders seemed to be back in their form yesterday. The Giants, in a sixth inning seven run rally, defeated the Chicago Cubs, 8 to 4, at the Polo Grounds, while the Athletics beat the Browns in Cleveland, the Yankees won from the Indians 10 to 2. This gave the New York American team an even break on their western trip.

The Reds and the Braves broke even in a double header in Boston, the Cincinnati team taking the first game, 8 to 2, and the Boston squad the second, 7 to 6. The Reds' stationary position allowed the Giants to advance their lead slightly.
